Field 17: German

INTRODUCTION

This section includes a list of the test objectives, practice questions, and an answer key for the selected-response questions.

Test objectives. As noted earlier, the test objectives are broad, conceptual statements that reflect the knowledge, skills, and understanding an entry-level educator needs to practice effectively in Arizona schools. The list of test objectives for each test field is the only source of information about what a specific test will cover and therefore should be studied carefully.

Practice questions. The practice selected-response questions and practice performance assignments included in this section are designed to give you an introduction to the nature of the questions included in the AEPA tests. The practice questions represent the various types of questions you may expect to see on an actual test; however, they are not designed to provide diagnostic information to help you identify specific areas of individual strengths and weaknesses or to predict your performance on the test as a whole.

When you answer the practice questions, you may wish to use the sample answer sheet and sample Written Response Booklet provided in Part 1 to acquaint yourself with these materials. Use the answer key located after the practice questions to check your answers. Sample responses are provided immediately following each written performance assignment. The sample responses in this guide are for illustrative purposes only. Your written response should be your original work, written in your own words, and not copied or paraphrased from some other work.

To help you identify how the test objectives are measured, the objective statement to which the question corresponds is listed in the answer key. When you are finished with the practice questions, you may wish to go back and review the entire list of test objectives and descriptive statements for your test field.

LISTENING COMPREHENSION

0001 Derive essential information from oral messages in everyday situations.

For example: demonstrating understanding of the main idea or details in a spoken passage, a telephone message, a public address announcement, a sequence of steps described in a set of oral directions, a stated cause or effect of a situation described in an oral message, a question or comment likely to be encountered in a social situation, or a request for information.

0002 Infer meaning from oral communications.

For example: characterizing the tone, mood, or point of view of one or more speakers; determining a relationship (e.g., cause-and-effect) implied but not stated in an oral communication; and determining the social context of a spoken exchange or the relationship between speakers.

READING AND VOCABULARY

0003 Demonstrate understanding of the literal content of a variety of authentic materials.

For example: analyzing a passage to determine the stated main idea; identifying an accurate summary; discerning details regarding character, setting, or events described in a passage; and analyzing a passage to determine the sequence of events.

0004 Apply skills of inference and interpretation to a variety of authentic materials.

For example: discerning implied cause-and-effect relations in a passage; and determining an author's assumptions, purpose, or point of view in a passage.

0005 Interpret and compare literary texts representing various writers, periods, forms, styles, regions, and cultural contexts.

For example: drawing conclusions about setting, character, historical period, or cultural context from information provided in a passage; interpreting figurative language (e.g., metaphors, similes) in a literary passage; comparing two passages in terms of style, form, or theme; and recognizing features of literary styles associated with well-known writers from various periods, regions, and cultures.

0006 Select words, phrases, or sentences (including idiomatic usages) to complete passages in German.

For example: determining appropriate language for travel situations (e.g., arranging for lodging, booking tickets for a group); determining appropriate language for social situations (e.g., canceling an appointment, expressing a compliment); determining appropriate language for everyday transactions (e.g., shopping, dining); and determining appropriate language for expressing attitudes, opinions, and judgments.

0008 Transform sentences or passages in context according to given instructions.

For example: transforming a positive statement, question, or command to a negative one, or vice versa; transforming the tense or mood of a sentence or passage; transforming a sentence or passage from direct to indirect discourse, or vice versa; and combining two or more sentences into one sentence that preserves the meaning of the original sentences.

0009 Analyze sentences to determine grammatically correct words or phrases to complete them.

For example: using the correct noun or pronoun form for a given context; using verb forms or phrases as appropriate for a given context; using the appropriate modifying word or phrase to complete a sentence; and using the appropriate subordinate clause to complete a sentence.

CULTURAL UNDERSTANDING*0010 Demonstrate understanding of the historical development, geographic features, and social characteristics of German-speaking cultures.

For example: recognizing the role of major historical events, figures, and movements in the development of German-speaking cultures; relating natural geographic features (e.g., climate, location, natural resources) of German-speaking nations to the economies of these nations (e.g., mineral and agricultural products); identifying major institutions (e.g., educational systems, systems of government) and characteristic features of daily life in German-speaking societies; and recognizing features of U.S. institutions that originated in German-speaking societies.

For example: identifying the significance of major movements, figures, and works of literature written in German; understanding the characteristic forms and elements of the visual arts and music of German-speaking cultures; recognizing scientific and technological achievements (historical or contemporary) of German-speaking cultures; and analyzing the significance of historical and contemporary interactions between German-speaking cultures and other cultures.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE METHODOLOGY

0012 Recognize current trends in foreign language methodology.

For example: recognizing methods and terminology that conform to the “5 Cs” of the foreign language national standards (communication, culture, comparisons, connections, communities), such as Total Physical Response (TPR), Comprehensible Input, cooperative learning, and authentic materials.

0013 Apply a variety of current foreign language methodologies used in a classroom setting.

For example: determining an appropriate methodology in a given instructional situation (e.g., introducing and expanding vocabulary, using grammatical structures in context, facilitating the development of all language skills and cultural understanding).

WRITTEN EXPRESSION

0014 Write well-organized German prose that is appropriate in style and diction for given audiences, purposes, and occasions and that communicates effectively through use of a range of vocabulary, idiomatic expressions, and simple and complex linguistic constructions.

PRACTICE QUESTIONS

Field 17: German

The AEPA German test consists of four sections: 1) a listening section with multiple-choice questions, 2) a reading section with multiple-choice questions, 3) a writing assignment section, and 4) a speaking section. The first three sections will be administered in a regular examination room. The speaking section (Section Four) is contained in a separate test booklet and may be administered in a separate room. The directions for each section appear immediately before that section.

DIRECTIONS FOR SECTION ONE

The first section of this test contains questions that involve listening to an audiotape. Each listening passage will begin with directions that will tell you what to listen for. The directions will be read aloud on the tape. They are also printed in your test booklet. Listen carefully to the tape and follow along in your test booklet. Ample time is provided between questions for your response. Unless otherwise indicated, each listening passage will be read twice.

The tape cannot be stopped nor can any section be replayed. Therefore, listen carefully. If you have any questions or if you cannot hear this tape clearly, please raise your hand now.

1. (You will hear and read in the test booklet:)

Listen carefully to the following passage about Klaus Mann.

(You will hear:)

Klaus Mann wurde am 18. November 1906 in München als ältester Sohn von Thomas Mann geboren. Schon als Schüler schrieb er Gedichte und Novellen. 1925 ging er als Theaterkritiker nach Berlin und erregte dort mit spielerisch-provokanten Dramen-Experimenten einiges Aufsehen. Nach der Machtübernahme Hitlers emigrierte Klaus Mann im Frühjahr 1933 nach Paris. Er gründete die literarisch-politische Zeitschrift "Die Sammlung", die Beiträge deutscher Exil-Schriftsteller und antifaschistischer Autoren verschiedener europäischer Länder vereinigte. 1936 veröffentlichte Mann seinen besten Roman, "Mephisto". Im selben Jahr verließ er Europa und ließ sich in New York nieder. Von 1941 an redigierte er dort die amerikanische Avantgarde-Zeitschrift "Decision". Er nahm als amerikanischer Soldat am zweiten Weltkrieg teil. Nach dem Krieg unternahm er eine Vortragsreise durch Europa. Er starb am 22. Mai 1949 in Cannes.

Below are the directions for the German writing performance assignment.

DIRECTIONS FOR SECTION THREE: WRITING ASSIGNMENT

This section of the test consists of a writing assignment. The assignment can be found on the next page. You are asked to prepare a written response of approximately 2–3 pages on the assigned topic. You should use your time to plan, write, review, and edit your response for the assignment.

Read the assignment carefully before you begin to work. Think about how you will organize your response. You may use any blank space in this test booklet to make notes, write an outline, or otherwise prepare your response. However, your score will be based solely on the version of your response written in Written Response Booklet B.

A list of suggestions is provided to help direct your response for the assignment. It is not necessary that you cover every point on the list, nor are you limited in your response to those points indicated. You are, however, required to write about the general assignment that you are given, and part of your score will be based on the degree to which you elaborate on the assignment by addressing either the suggested points or points of your choosing.

Your response to the writing assignment will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- PURPOSE: the extent to which the objective of the assignment is achieved and the response is appropriate for the intended audience
- COHERENCE: organization and clarity of ideas
- CONTENT: development of ideas and relevance of supporting details
- GRAMMAR: accuracy of grammatical forms and syntax
- VOCABULARY: command of vocabulary and idiomatic expressions
- MECHANICS: accuracy of spelling, diacritical marks, and punctuation

Your response must be written in the target language. This should be your original work, written in your own words, and not copied or paraphrased from some other work.

Be sure to write about the assigned topic. Please write legibly. You may not use any reference materials during the test. Remember to review your work and make any changes you think will improve your response.

Below is the scoring scale for the German writing performance assignment.

Practice Writing Performance Assignment

11. Imagine that you have a warm relationship with a family with whom you lived during a year of study in a German-speaking country. You have stayed in touch with them since returning to the United States, but several months have passed since you last wrote. To reestablish contact with them, write a letter in German to the parents of the family, a couple in their fifties. You may wish to include, but are not limited to, the following topics:
- reminiscences about your stay with them;
  - inquiries about their health and activities;
  - your own recent activities;
  - your plans for the immediate future.

Sample Writing Performance Assignment Response: Score Point 4

Liebe Frau Spangenberg,

Entschuldigen Sie bitte mein langes Schweigen! Während der letzten drei Monate, habe ich wenig Zeit gehabt, mich hinzusetzen, um Ihnen einen Brief zu schreiben. Trotzdem habe ich oft an Sie und Ihre Familie gedacht. Ich hoffe, daß es Ihnen allen gut geht.

Seit meinem letzten Brief ist vieles in meinem Leben geschehen. Ich habe endlich promoviert und suche jetzt eine Stelle als Lehrer, entweder an einer Universität oder an einem Gymnasium. Wenn es möglich ist, möchte ich gerne an einem Gymnasium in Deutschland unterrichten. Zur Zeit versuche ich, mich über Arbeitsmöglichkeiten für Ausländer in Deutschland zu informieren.

Wie geht es Ihrem Mann? In Ihrem letzten Brief haben Sie berichtet, daß er einen Vortrag über seine medizinischen Forschungen an der Universität Wien halten sollte. Sind Sie mit ihm nach Wien gereist? Ich erinnere mich noch mit Vergnügen an die vielen Gespräche die ich mit Ihnen und Doktor Spangenberg beim Mittagessen geführt habe.

Erinnern Sie sich an den Studenten aus meinem Germanistik Seminar, den ich Ihnen einmal vorgestellt habe? Er hieß Georg Scheer. Vor zwei Monaten hat er mich besucht. Er verbrachte seine Sommerferien in den Vereinigten Staaten und ist einige Tage bei mir zu Hause geblieben. Es machte mir viel Spaß, den Reiseführer zu spielen. Wir haben das Kunstmuseum, den Tiergarten, die Oper und viele gute Gaststätten und Kneipen besucht.

Wie geht es Ihrem Sohn? Wohnt er noch in seinem Atelier in der Altstadt? Es war sehr freundlich von ihm, mich oft in sein Atelier einzuladen. Für mich war es immer sehr interessant, ihm zuzuschauen als er an Gemälden, Litographien, und Kupferstichen arbeitete. Es war auch eine wunderbare Gelegenheit für mich, allerlei Menschen aus verschiedenen Teilen Deutschlands kennenzulernen und mein Deutsch durch häufige Übung zu verbessern.

Jetzt muß ich mich verabschieden, denn ich habe heute nachmittag ein Interview. Ich hoffe, bald Nachrichten von Ihnen zu bekommen.

Herzliche Grüße,

Ihr James

Below are the directions for the German speaking performance assignment.

DIRECTIONS FOR SECTION FOUR: SPEAKING ASSIGNMENT

For this section of the test, you will speak on tape in response to an assignment presented in your test booklet. You will read the assignment in your test booklet and have one minute to consider your response, then you will have two minutes to speak.

Listen to the assignment carefully. Think about how you will organize your response. You may NOT write or take notes in this test booklet. Your score will be based solely on the response you provide on the audiotape after the announcer tells you to begin speaking.

A list of suggestions is provided to help direct your response for the assignment. It is not necessary that you cover every point on the list, nor are you limited in your response to those points indicated. However, what you say must be relevant to the situation with which you are presented, and part of your score will be based on the degree to which you elaborate on the assignment by addressing either the suggested points or points of your choosing.

Your response to the question in this section will be evaluated based on the following criteria.

- CONTENT: the adequacy of the information presented, including the number of ideas, the development of ideas, and the depth and specificity of supporting details
- COHERENCE: the organization and clarity of the ideas communicated
- GRAMMAR: the accuracy of grammatical and syntactic constructions (e.g., conjugation of verbs, appropriate use of tenses, subject/pronoun and article/noun agreement)
- VOCABULARY: the command of vocabulary and idiomatic expressions and appropriateness of word choice
- FLUENCY: the ability to maintain a flow of speech, without hesitations or pauses that affect the overall comprehensibility of the response
- PRONUNCIATION: the comprehensibility of articulation and the appropriateness of stress

Your response must be spoken in the target language. Be sure to speak about the assigned topic. You may not use any reference materials during the test.

Once the tape has begun, it cannot be stopped, nor can you re-record your response.

When you have finished reading these directions, please look up. You will receive further instructions from your test administrator.

Look up when you are ready to begin Section Four.

DO NOT GO ON UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.

Practice Speaking Performance Assignment

12. (You will hear and read in the test booklet:)

Read the instructions below. You will have 1 minute to study these instructions. Then, when you are told to do so, begin to respond in German. You may take up to 2 minutes to complete your response. You will be told when the 2 minutes are up. You may begin studying the instructions now. You will be told when to begin speaking.

(You will read in the test booklet:)

Imagine that you are the faculty advisor to a student from a German-speaking country who is spending a year at your school on an exchange program. After two weeks in the United States, the student is unhappy and wants to go home. His parents telephone to express their concern and ask your advice. Speaking in German, reassure them about the situation and explain to them why you feel their child should make the effort to stay for the full year. You may wish to include, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- possible reasons for the student's discontent, and any changes that could improve the situation;
- the potential benefits to the student of a year's stay in the United States;
- what the parents might do to encourage the student to stay;
- what the student could do to adapt more successfully to the new situation.

(You will have 1 minute to study the instructions above. Then you will have 2 minutes to respond on the audiotape.)

In responding to this particular prompt, the speaker should offer enough specific information to make the communication plausible in context—that is, to inform the parents fully about their child's situation, and to respond directly and sympathetically to the child's needs and their concerns. The language of the response should be tactful and considerate. An excellent response to the assignment would reflect the speaker's ability to use a variety of sentence structures, to handle transitions in thought without confusion or awkwardness, and to communicate gracefully, using appropriate terms and idiomatic expressions and avoiding errors in syntax and usage.
